

PASTOR SARGENT SIMMS

Pastor Sargent Simms

Pastor Sargent Simms is a semi-retired Seventh-day Adventist's Minister, and has been in ministry for over 40 years. He has interacted with a diversity of population groups; having served in different countries: Africa, Asia, Far East, Middle East, Europe, Central America, North America (both US and Canada), and the Caribbean Islands. Now as a semi-retired pastor he is very active in assisting individuals in establishing gardens; to add to his many activities he is also an avid gardener and registered farmer with USDA.

